What We Teach

Ours is an EDUCATION FOR LIFE.

Our aim is for our students to succeed in THE TEST OF LIFE with excellence.

THE TEST OF LIFE is the test each one of us takes every day, at every moment, with the decisions that will eventually shape our well-being and that of our planet. We strive towards individual happiness to achieve the ultimate goal of collective well-being.

Our philosophy is based on 'UBUNTU', which means "humanity": "I am because you are". We believe we share a universal bond that connects everything.

One might think that this approach is not academically rigorous because most people associate happiness with "easy or undemanding", but this is far from the truth. We differentiate the word happiness from pleasure.

Our school's foundation lies in teaching 18 languages.

1. Spiritual Language

The beauty of silence fosters a close relationship with ourselves and our higher being.

2. Emotional Language

Emotions create "motion" and, thus, become the "seeds" of our actions.

3. English

Internationally recognized as a "peace language."

4. Mandarin

We are a Confucius Classroom, with ample Mandarin-speaking academic personnel.

5. French

This is the language of international relations.

6. Spanish

Ours is the second most spoken language in the world.

7. The Language of Creativity

Certainly, this is a solution to humanity's troubles.

8. The Language of Mathematics

Analytical thinking is a tool for decision-making.

9. The Language of Understanding

We teach history to understand our present and foresee our future.

10. The Language of Money and Entrepreneurship

It is crucial to understand the existence of two monetary systems: money that fuels destruction and money that serves the world.

11. Scientific Language

We are a living chemical laboratory.

12. Audiovisual Language

This is the art of assembling words and images to transmit a message.

13. Body Language

Dance provides us with a platform to understand our own bodies and the joys that lie within.

14. Ancestral Language

Learning about nature, our elders, and the "spoken word" will help us find solutions to humanity's pressing needs.

15. The Language of the Future

Our use of technological advances and robotics is resourceful.

16. The Language of Nature

Nature has its laws, and we seek to make our students remember them.

17. Oratory

Convincing others and learning to deliver a message is fundamental.

18. Culinary Language

Only by cooking healthy food will we be able to heal the world and ourselves.

Our bus fleet

Our school strives to allow its students to “live” this kind of education.

It seems rather simple and straightforward in writing, but achieving this in every aspect of our students’ lives is not easy; this philosophy implies intricate difficulties. We “weave” our classes so that all of our students are motivated to pass THE TEST OF LIFE. These life decisions have a solid foundation in academic knowledge, which we teach by preparing our students for the following examinations:

- ♦ AS - Level / A - Level: Advanced Subsidiary Level and Advanced Level
- ♦ IGCSE: International General Certificate of Secondary Education
- ♦ PSAT-SAT: Scholastic Assessment Test
- ♦ PRESABER and SABER: Mandatory Colombian Test
- ♦ DELF: Diplôme d’études en langue française
- ♦ HSK: Hanyu Shuiping Kaoshi
- ♦ IELTS: International English Language Testing System
